

NAVAJYOTHI WOMEN PURASKAR

Introduction

Navajyothi Woman Puraskar is intended to promote gender equity and women empowerment. This award is established to honour and appreciate the woman who made notable achievements and contributions in the society, especially from Navajyothi College. The award is established in the year 2018. The award will be declared on 8th March of every year. The awards will be given away on an appropriate day declared in advance.

Objectives:

1. To recognize and encourage women from the immediate environment reflected as the model for others
2. To honour the women rendering commendable and distinguished service to the society and in the college.

Eligibility Criteria for Nomination

1. The applicant must be from the female staff (Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff) or Girl student of the college.
2. They shall provide necessary documents at the time of application.
3. The application from the staff and students shall be given with the signature of Head of the department. In the case of non teaching staff, the office superintendent shall forward the application.

Screening Committee and a Selection Committee

Screening Committee and a Selection Committee would be constituted for the purpose which shall consider the achievement of individuals nominated or recommended for the Puruskars by the prescribed authority. The outstanding contributions in the field shall be of primary consideration in identifying the recipients of Puruskars.

The Committee comprises of

1. Principal
2. Convener of Women Cell
3. IQAC coordinator
4. 2 Nominated members by the College Council.

The Endowment

The selected Candidate shall be given A certificate of achievement, and a memento.